

10th MARCO LUCHETTA INTERNATIONAL PRESS AWARD

The "Luchetta, Ota, D'Angelo, Hrovatin Foundation for child war victims" has organized the tenth edition in memory of the death of Marco Luchetta, Alessandro Ota and Dario D'Angelo. The three journalists were killed by a grenade in Mostar while working on a special report on child war victims in the Balkans. The Prize also commemorates the death of Miran Hrovatin, the cameraman who was killed in Mogadishu together with journalist Ilaria Alpi.

The Award pays tribute to their humanitarian and low-profile approach to journalism. Apart from the professional skills that this job implies, candidates are required to share the ideals that inspired both the work of the four journalists and the setting up of the Foundation that was created in their name: solidarity among peoples, respect for ethnical and political diversities, peaceful coexistence and negotiation as a means to solve conflicts. The goals and scope of the contest are in line with the spirit that has inspired the activity of the Foundation which has hosted and cared for hundreds of children coming from all over the world and suffering from diseases that cannot be treated in their countries.

These principles are also shared by the winners of the Marco Luchetta Special Award - an acknowledgement reserved for important people who have distinguished themselves by pursuing the ideals that underlie the Award.

The prize giving ceremony will take place in Trieste, during the TV show "I Nostri Angeli" (Our Angels). The date of the event will be announced later on.
